

Pack Membership Chair

Job Description

Position Concept

Membership is a concern of all adult leaders. However, the Pack Committee Chair must appoint a qualified individual to serve as the Pack Membership Chair or New Member Coordinator who has the responsibility of coordinating these efforts.

Responsibilities

- Visit with new families. Review with them the Bobcat requirements and "Parent Guide" in their child's handbook. Emphasize the part that the family plays in their child's advancement. Stress parent/guardian participation at all pack functions and see that new families are introduced and feel welcome at pack meetings.
- Work with the Cubmaster and pack committee to develop and carry out a plan for year-round membership growth.
- Work with the Cubmaster and pack committee to see that
 - Eligible Lions transition into a Tiger Cub den at the appropriate time
 - Eligible Tiger Cubs transition into a Wolf den at the appropriate time.
 - Eligible Wolf Cub Scouts or 9-year-old Cub Scouts transition into a Bear den at the appropriate time.
 - Eligible Bear Cub Scouts or 10-year-old Cub Scouts transition into a Webelos den at the appropriate time.
 - Webelos Scouts and parents or guardians have a smooth transition into a Scouts BSA troop.
- Work with the Cubmaster in following up on former pack members who are now Scouts BSA and potential den chiefs.
- Follow up on Cub Scout dropouts to help return them to full, active membership.
